MAID OF HOUSE BEING HELD

Maid Witnesses Killing — Ice Pick Is Weapon Used—Woman Claims She Slew Husband In Self Defense After He Came Home Intoxicated

Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 29—Self defense will be the plea of Mrs. Margaret E. Gardner, under arrest here today charged with murdering her husband with an ice pick.

Mrs. Gardner is seventeen years younger than her husband, Edward R. Gardner, who is 39 and Pittsburgh manager of the New York Mattress company.

Gardner's nude body was found in the bath tub of his home early Sunday, a wound in his heart which Mrs. Gardner admitted she inflicted with an ice pick.

Gardner came home in an intoxicated condition, the wife alleged, and beat her. Finally, in self defense,

ROBINSON CRUSOE FINDS HIS "FRIDAY"

Just as Robinson Crusoe of juvenile fame found his "Friday," so has Jackie Coogan, modern counterpart of Daniel Defoe's book hero, discovered his "Friday."

It all came about when the director spent days of patient effort with nine different cats trying to make the felines "emote" and play "Friday" to Jackie's Crusoe. Finally he threw up the sponge and ordered the cat episode stricken from the story, but little did he reckon with a nine-year-old boy's love for animals.

Jackie was dismayed but undaunted. He went home and waited in his back yard until the big black tom cat, a daily visitor on the Coogan fence,

She Planned to Murder Her Husband; Prominent Woman Confesses Gruesome Details

MRS MACDONALD AT THE TIME SHE WAS MARRIED

How she deliberately planned the murder of her husband has just been revealed in a confession by Edwina Levin MacDonald, of New York City. Goaded by the ignominy of having to live in the home and use the servants and silver of a former wife, she set about to lay careful plans to put her husband out of the way.

Mrs. MacDonald went so far as to have a farewell party attended by two hundred, because after the deed she knew she would be taken into immediate custody. Increasingly obsessed with the gruesome details as the fatal night approached, she dreamed she had committed the act and overcome with terror confessed all to her husband.

Assigning a motive for this near tragedy, she describes in an article in Hearst's International for October the developments leading up to the plot.

"Marrying a divorced man," she says, "I might have been expected to foresee my situation: but foresight is based on foreknowledge. And youth has only its dreams upon which to base its expectations. In one swift, blinding shock I had come upon the truth. All this beauty of detail was the handiwork, the creation, so to speak, of another woman. Bought for her. Planned and arranged by and for her, reflecting her taste, her individuality.

"Even her servants had been handed down to me. They had seen another woman sit where I now sat; they had witnessed his caresses bestowed upon her, and would, with sly waggings of the head, watch him repeat himself with me.

"A second-hand house, second-hand furniture, second-hand servants—a second-hand husband. Even this first dinner alone with his bride was a reproduction, for him, of that day ten years ago.

"All beauty went out of my house in that hour. Perhaps somewhat of my love for my husband. I was aware of a passionate resentment toward him and secret rebellion.

"What thoughts fell one upon another, what fancies assaulted me as, together, we later entered that all-lavender room, must be apparent. In the mirrors which now reflected my face, he had seen her face reflected for nine years. On that mahogany bench she had sat to take down her hair night after night."

Thus is the confession of the sixteen year old bride told in all its reality until the climax is reached.

"Humiliation and bitterness walked with me constantly. I was in a dungeon from which my husband's death alone could set me free. He was responsible for my incarceration. He was responsible for my multiplied helplessness. Thus the desire for his death was born."

Gomer and his son who were in the front seat of the car were cut by flying glass and Mrs. Gomer was bruised badly when she was thrown out of the car, when the crash occurred. An infant daughter, whom Mrs. Gomer held in her arms was uninjured. After being given medical attention they were able to go to their homes. The car was badly damaged.

Chief Clerk Cannot Give Facts Relative To An Assault

David R. Riggle, aged 33, of Washington, cashier and chief clerk at the American Railways Company office in that city, who was brutally assaulted during an apparent attempt to rob the office about noon on Saturday, regained consciousness yesterday, but was unable to give the officers of the law facts which will aid them in their quest for the perpetrators of the deed.

In his statement to the chief of police of Washington, Riggle said he did not see the man who struck him a blow on the head which caused him to remain unconscious for a period of 24 hours. He said that while he bent over the scales in the office weighing a package, that he noticed a man's feet and then was struck on the head.

Reports from the Washington hospital where the injured man is receiving treatment, are to the effect that he is out of danger, and will probably recover. An X-ray will be taken of the wound to determine its seriousness. Nothing of value was taken from the express office.

Mystery surrounds the apparent attempted holdup. John Ward, a farmer of Canton township, discovered

PYTHIANS MEET AT MIDWAY

An enthusiastic meeting of the Pythian Friendship association was held with Midway lodge 509, Knights of Pythias, in the lodge room at Midway Friday night. Officers from the grand lodge of Pennsylvania were among the speakers and the meeting proved one of the most successful ever held in the county. More than 150 Pythians were in attendance. The regular meeting was followed by a luncheon.

The meeting was called to order by Chairman F. G. Terry, who introduced William Sylvester, of Pittsburgh, past grand chancellor, of Pennsylvania, who made the chief address. Mr. Sylvester is one of the chief founders of the Pythian Orphans' Home and in his remarks told of the good work that had been accomplished by that institution.

Lemuel Welt, of Philadelphia, grand keeper of records and seals, talked on "Pythian Friendship" and recalled what had been accomplished by the order nationally in the state, and locally. Bennie Moore, supreme representative, delivered a remarkable address, both in a humorous and serious vein. His talk was one of the hits of the evening.

Minnie Guthrie, of Pittsburgh, grand senior of the Pythian sisters, represented that branch of the order in the list of speakers and confined her remarks largely to the work of the women's organization. She emphasized the importance of the building of a Pythian temple at Midway and told of the good that might be accomplished by such a move.

Following lodges were represented at the meeting: Federal of Preston; Dovercliffe, of Bennington; Progressive of Bakesville; Hancock, of Washington; Canon, of Canonsburg; Waverly of McDonald; Arlington of Sturgeon and Hickory of Hickory.

Mr. Carlisle, who survives, together with two daughters, Mrs. Homer Cooley, of Fairchance, and Mary Ruth Carlisle, at home. One grandson and the following brothers and sisters also survive: George, Haldean and Melvin Frederick, all of Bentleyville; Mrs. James R. McGuire of New Kensington, and Mrs. Harry Combs and Mrs Clyde Ferguson, both of Bentleyville.

RALLY DAY IS GREAT SUCCESS

Rally Day and promotion services were held in the Washington Avenue Presbyterian church yesterday. Many have said that these were the most largely attended and interesting services of the kind ever held in the church. More than five hundred men and women, boys and girls ranging in age from seven weeks to seventy-six years, were present to enjoy this service. Visitors were present from Pittsburgh, Washington, Monessen and several other places at a distance from Charleroi. Four classes, the cradle-roll beginners, primary and junior boys and girls were promoted to the next class above. A very interesting part of the services was the presentation of a bouquet to both the youngest and oldest pupils. Little Louis LeHosse, age seven weeks, received the bouquet of rosebuds for being the youngest pupil present; while James Johns, age seventy-six years, received a bouquet of lavender colored astors for being the oldest pupil.

A most encouraging part of the program was the offering, which amounted to $54. This is by far the largest offering ever given on Rally day, and is almost double the offering for last year.

All are greatly encouraged with this splendid beginning of the work for the year. A complete corps of teachers has been selected for the year and the signs indicate a most successful year in all departments of the Sunday School and church.

The annual Conference year of the Methodist Episcopal church came to a close yesterday. Two infants and one adult were baptized, while three persons were received into the church by covenant and six by letter. A report was read reviewing the activities of the year, which evidenced that all organizations of the church are doing well and in most cases better, than in former years.

The evening service of the church was conducted by the Epworth League, a special program being carried out. "The Challenge of the Cross" was well presented. The president of the League presented the pastor, Rev. E. H. Greenlee, with a book on behalf of the league.

Rev. Greenlee will leave shortly after noon tomorrow to attend a conference at Wilkinsburg, which will continue throughout the week until October 7, and is being held in the South Avenue, Methodist Episcopal church of that place. Delegates from Charleroi will attend throughout the week and an especial attendance is expected Friday, Laymen's day.

Jewish People Are Observing The Holidays

The first of the Jewish high holidays, Rosh Hashonah, or New Year's had its first observance by the Jewish people of Charleroi and vicinity in Turner hall, Seventh street and McKean avenue, last night. Additional services will be held today and tomorrow.

The congregation was fortunate in securing as its spiritual advisor and leader Rabbi Morris Goldberg, a graduate of the Jewish Theological Seminary, New York. Last night the rabbi had for his theme, "The New Year;" this evening his subject will be "Happiness," and Tuesday, "The Meaning of the Shofar."

The local congregation's numbers are being amplified by visitors from adjoining towns and cities. The evening services begin promptly at 7 o'clock and the morning service at 8 o'clock.

THE COUNTY W.C.T.U. MEETS AT MON CITY

An enthusiastic meeting was held in the Methodist Episcopal church of Monongahela Friday evening under the auspices of the Washington County Women's Christian Temperance Union.

Rev. G. E. Brenneman was chairman. Rev. Maude Seymour, an ordained minister of New York state, was introduced as the speaker of the evening and delivered an eloquent address. Mrs. Seymour discussed the present situation of the country generally as compared with the days of the saloon. With a few terse statistics she contended that the general opinion that the results of prohibition are alarming were false and discredited propaganda of the Association Against Prohibition. She stated that conditions were growing better and much improvement in the situation had been noted in the past five years. In 1917, she stated, there were 68,000 deaths from alcoholic poisoning and contributory causes while in 1923 there were 17,000. Savings bank deposits have increased beyond belief, she said; automobiles were bought; children cared for and a wonderful home building movement started. At the coming election, Mrs. Seymour said, various organizations would endeavor to elect a wet congress and Mrs. Seymour made a plea that the sleeping citizens arise from their apathy and support all movements fighting for temperance. She urged every Christian citizen to register and vote. An organization with a large number of members was effected and the following officers elected:

President, Mrs. W. P. Rodgers; vice president, Mrs. John Crawford; secretary, Mrs. John Chattaway; treasurer, Mrs. Lewis Yohe.

BUSINESS MEN TO BE RECOGNIZED

One session of the convention of the State Sabbath School Association to be held in Washington Oct. 5-10, is being planned that is not intended for Sunday school workers; in fact, the delegates to the convention will not figure in it in any manner. This feature is a business men's dinner to be served at noon Wednesday the opening day of the convention, in the ball room of the George Wash-

The Washington convention committee does not even have charge of the arrangements for this dinner, but it is being sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. Invitations to this dinner will be sent out sohrtly from the Chamber of Commerce, but as the list of names available is not exclusive by any means, any business or professional man who may wish to attend the dinner may get a card at the office of the Chamber of Commerce, or at such other place as may be designated. The invitation will be accompanied by a return reservation card, as it will be necessary to know a little in advance how many to prepare for.

The purpose of this dinner is to give business men an opportunity to learn that the Sunday school is something which should concern them—something that has a real place in the development of character and of right relations among men. After the dinner the diners will be addressed by the Rev. Dr. M. A. Honine, of Pasadena Cal., on "Christian Education the Solution to Economic Problems," a proposition to which thinking men are more and more giving their assent. Another speaker for this occasion will be Dr. Floyd Tompkins, whose widely known ability insures a portion of forceful address.

WOULD DEBAR MRS. FERGUSON.

The injunction suit to prevent Mrs. Ferguson from becoming Governor of Texas would seem to have little chance of a successful issue, although a literal interpretation of certain provisions in force in the state would not be in favor of her claims. The contention that she is not entitled to be Governor because her husband has been debarred from the office would appear to be altogether too trivial for serious consideration. Rather more impressive is the representation that the Governor of Texas is by virtue of the office commander-in-chief of the State militia, which, under existing law, must be made up of "able bodied male citizens," and that assumption of the office would make Mrs. Ferguson a member of the militia, which she can not be because she is not a "male citizen." It is further claimed that women are explicitly forbidden by law to hold executive or judicial office, and that the right to the ballot conferred on women by the 19th amendment is not equivalent to full political equality.

It has been generally understood to be, however, and it is safe to predict that that will be the final decision. All particular laws implying the contrary are likely to be either amended or not to be interpreted literally. For good or ill—according to the individual's view of the matter — the 19th amendment is generally understood to have reinterpreted such laws as by their literal wording imply that women are debarred from public office, and it cannot be doubted that this view will ultimately prevail everywhere in the country. And in view of the nature of majority sentiment in America, although the courts must formally decide, it is safe to predict that Mrs. Ferguson will serve as Governor of Texas.

RUM PIRATES AND THE LAW.

Last July "rum pirates" held up a French freighter off the New Jersey coast and looted her of 35,000 cases of champagne and fine liquors, a cargo probably of greater value than most of those taken by eighteenth-century pirates flying the Jolly Roger from even gold-carrying merchantmen. Detective work on tips from New York bootleggers resulted in the tracking of this modern pirate gang and running down the ringleader in Paris, after shadowing him in London, Antwerp and Brussels. The French government authorized his arrest and he is now held in solitary confinement to await prosecution for piracy on the high seas. As French jurisdiction is said to be exclusive in the matter, the man's claim to be a naturalized American can be of little use to him and his German birth is not likely to prejudice a French court in his favor.

The issue of the case will be interesting as tending to throw light on the question as to whether under the laws of nations a rum pirate is to be classed with the black-flag pirate of former times and to be punished accordingly. Doubt is expressed as to whether he would be in the United States on account of the illegal character of his booty and the lack of public sympathy for the rum-runner or bootlegger be despoiled. Yet one of our courts has decided that a bootlegger is protected against payment in counterfeit money. The question has as yet received little consideration because of the inevitable disinclination of law-breaking bootleggers to appeal to the law against either the "high-jackers" who hold them up on land or the pirates who rob them at sea.

Charleroi High School Team Stages Whirlwind Come-Back and Make California Boys Look Like Novices

It was generally thought that the big fellows from California Normal would walk away with Charleroi, and so it looked Saturday in the first quarter, when the Normal aggregation tore through the locals' faltering line for three straight downs. But after Normal's first and only touchdown, which was scored by a Normal man falling on a fluke punt by Charleroi that rolled behind the goal line, the locals tightened, and from that on to the end of the game their goal ed Normal only three first downs in the balance of the game. The final score was 13-7.

Both teams battled up and down the field, neither endangering the others' goal line until the third period, when Crabb signaled for a fair catch on the Normal 10-yard line. Paterline planed the ball to within one yard of the goal line, from where it was taken over by Torbert. Charleroi here lost a chance to tie up the contest by missing a placement kick for the extra point.

In the fourth period, Normal found themselves unable to gain by running the ball, so they tried three forwards, which were unsuccessful. Finding themselves on their own 15-yard line, without three minutes to play Normal essayed to punt out of danger. It was here that a game seemed to be hopelessly lost, was turned into a victory by the "never-the-say defeat" spirit of the Charleroi team. Charko, a speedy end, broke up Normal's attempted punt while Skinner scooped the pigskin up before it hit the ground and scored the winning touchdown with a 15-yard run over the line.

"Doc" Smith refereed the contest; Lowstuter umpired, while Malcolm was the head linesman.

The large crowd was enthusiastic over the showing the Charleroi High agggregation made, and were free in their predictions that the locals are fully as strong, if not stronger, than they were last year.

For the Reserves "Frankie" Wagner showed them that he is still much of a foot-ball player. Eckert, former Elco star along with Hande played good football on the Normal line. Skinner was a disappointment, not living up to advance notices of his playing ability.

Lineup:

"Red" Mason in Charleroi and There Are Rumors of Big "Doings"— Good Card For Tomorrow Night

"Red" Mason, pilot for Cuddy DeMarco arrived in Charleroi this afternoon and is the guest of his protege today.

The coming of Mason has a big meaning to the fight fans of Charleroi. It means the forerunner of some big contracts for Cuddy. Mr. Mason talked on the phone to the local boy today and announced that the match as originally announced between Cuddy and Johnny O'Brien, scheduled for October 9 at Waterbury, Conn., is O. K., and Cuddy will have an opportunity to wipe out the decision of the New York fight body when they gave a decision against the local boy.

The coming of Mason this afternoon means a big announcement tomorrow. The red topped manager intimated that he has some big stuff up his sleeve so that the local fans can expect something good by tomorrow. It is just possible that Manager Mason will stop over for the big show tomorrow night.

The Elks Boxing club completed its card for the show with the signing of Young Ruddy of Charleroi, who will meet Eddie Bayne of Verona in the second bout of the night's excellent bill. In passing it may be said that with the engaging of Ruddy and Bayne this makes one of the best cards ever offered to the local fans.

Joe Moore, the California boy, who meets Young Saylor in the main bout of the double windup, reports that about one-half of the population of the Normal town will be on hand to encourage him in his efforts against Saylor.

The other 10-round bout is attracting a great deal of attention, inasmuch as both Willie Davies and Hugh Manson have plenty of friends "pulling" for them.

The opener brings together Ollie Henderson of Charleroi and Young Trotsky of Monessen.

Tomorrow night's card will be the last of the season, and it is the desire of the committee of the Elks club to make is so successful that the fans will recall it with pleasure in the after days.

GIANTS WIN FOURTH CONSECUTIVE PENNANT; NEW RECORD

Baseball history was made in the final complete week of the major league campaigns when the Giants won their fourth consecutive league pennant and established a new major league record.

The Senators assured themselves of at least a tie and have only to win one of their two remaining contests from Boston to give the city of Washington its first pennant.

Brooklyn clinched second money by winning from Boston yesterday, as the Pirates, certain at least of third place, fell before Chicago. The Yankees, if nosed out by Washington, will take second place. Detroit is anchored in third.

PIRATES PLAY WIERDLY; CHICAGO WINS IN WINDY CITY

Having only a reminiscent interest in the National League race, the Pirates played like a lot of old ladies yesterday afternoon at Chicago and the Cubs defeated them 7 to 2. It was one of the loosest games of the season and the 7,000 fans who braved the chill autumnal air booed at the club which challenged the Giants a fortnight since.

Lee Meadows inaugurated the burling for the Pirates and he was treated rather roughly in the opening canto. Three Cub runs spouted on four hits and a passed ball by Walt Schmidt. The Cubs made three more tallies in the fourth on one hit and a mess of errors. The Pirates did everything wrong.

They did not appear as a team that challenged the Giants for the lead of the senior major league. The going got so rough that Meadows was extinguished in favor of Johnny Morrison, who hurled the remainder of the contest so well that the Cubs could make no additional runs. The Pirates crew seemed to perk up after he entered the fray and played very decent ball after the fourth round.

THE SENATORS MAY CLINCH THEIR FIRST PENNANT TODAY

Washington and New York not being scheduled to play yesterday there were no developments in the fight for first place in the American league today. Brooklyn clinched second place in the National by winning from Boston 5 to 1 as the Pirates lost to Chicago 7 to 2.

The Giants, with their fourth pennant safe, played many recruits against Philadelphia, and lost 11 to 6.

Washington and New York resume their battle tomorrow. The Senators assured of a tie, need only to win one of their remaining two from Boston even though the Yankees take their two from Philadelphia, to win the pennant.

The Giant management has announced that applications for tickets for the lower stands for the third, fourth and fifth games of the world series would now be accepted with certified checks or money orders for $16.50. Admission to the upper stand and bleachers will be sold only on the day of each game at the park. The price for the upper stands will be $3.30 and for the bleachers $1.10.

DELEGATES WORKING TO SAVE THE LEAGUE'S PROTOCOL

Geneva, Sept. 29—Delegates worked desperately today to save the League of Nations protocol of arbitration and security, imperilled by Japan's insistence upon bringing the question of such problems as the American Japanese exclusion act before the league.

The protocol, hailed as the greatest constructive step towards world peace in the League's history, provides for a disarmament conference, if three of the four nations represented on the council endorse it.

Ambassador Adatci, Japan's representative, virtually has threatened opposition to the proposal unless the protocol's seventh article is revised and so worded that disputes "arising from questions of purely domestic jurisdiction" may be brought to the council.

The word immigration was not mentioned, but stripped of its verbiage and technicalities, the Japanese proposal means that Japan wants to carry its complaint against the United States to the League.

By so doing the Japanese deny the right of National sovereignty over domestic affairs when another nation is affected thereby.

The situation is grave because Japan by a negative vote can kill the entire disarmament, arbitration and security project, but it is thought the Japanese may refrain from voting when the protocol comes up for the assembly's decision tomorrow.

BABE'S ARRIVAL BRINGS REMINDER OF A ROMANCE

New York, Sept. 29.—A reminder of the runaway romance of Millicent Rogers and Count Ludwig Von Hoogstraeten wailed lustily at Miss Lippincott's private hospital here today, where "mother and son are doing well."

Presumably father is, too, but he was left behind in Europe when Father Rogers went over after his remorseful daughter and brought her home. The count has been advised of his fatherhood, but has not been invited to the christening, and friends of the Rogers family say there will be no reconciliation.

"It's a boy, eight pounds, and it looks like its father," Millicent said. Mrs. Rogers said she and the colonel were happy.

Millicent, $40,000,000 heiress, married Count Salm at the municipal building in New York City January 9 of this year. They went to Europe after the bride's father, Col. H. H. Rogers, declined to accept Ludwig, and for a time danced in cabarets while the count wrote "How I wooed and won the $40,000,000 heiress" for a feature syndicate. Then Col. Rogers went over and brought back his daughter. The baby came September 27.

28 MEN DIE WHEN BOAT GOES TO THE BOTTOM

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 29.—Wreckage of the steamer Clifton, picked up in Lake Huron, over the week-end, confirmed the belief that the missing whaleback went to the bottom with its crew of 28 men.

Search for bodies was continued today under direction of Richard Harrison of the Lake Carriers' association.

Broken hatch covers and part of the pilot house of the Clifton were picked up by Captain Dalton Hudson of the steamer Clemsain, according to word received here.

The Clifton bound for Detroit from Sturgeon Bay, Wis., with a cargo of crushed stone, is believed to have sunk last Monday off Goerich, during a 60-mile gale.

LOVER KIDNAPS THEN RETURNS HID LADY LOVE

Pittsburgh, Sept. 29.—After being kidnaped by a spurned lover, Jeannette McCrosky, 22, of Homer City, Ind., a telephone operator, was returned to her rooming house in an unconscious condition early today.

Police are seeking Thomas Anderson, of Corrigan, said to be a married man. Except for suffering from shock the girl was not harmed.

appeared, and coaxing the wary animal to him, carried him off to the studio next day. And strange to relate the cat took direction like an old trouper, and has the important role of "Friday" in Jackie's newest Metro-Goldwyn release, "Little Robinson Crusoe," which comes to the Coyle Theatre today for a three-days' stay.

"Friday's" salary will be a fried fish, two pieces of liver and a ball of catnip daily, with the provision that if he is a good cat he will have a home for the rest of his days in Jackie's attic.

COAL COMPANY ENJOINED BY SUPREME COURT

Pittsburgh, Sept. 29.— The Sagamore Coal company and the Melcrost Coal company and others of Fayette County were enjoined from emptying mine drainage water into Indian Creek by the state supreme court today.

The court dismissed the decree of the lower court which permitted them to empty mine water in the stream.

The Dunbar Water company and the Pennsylvania Railroad were the plaintiffs in the case.

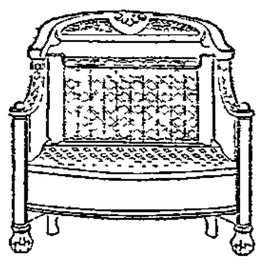
The Humphrey Radiantfire



What it will do---

It will flood your room with glowing radiant heat in one minute after lighting.

If you are cold, chilly or wet, it will warm and dry you in one minute.

It will give you the greatest joy and comfort you ever had in your house.

If you are sick, it is better than a doctor in your house.

It will save firing the furnace for two months in the fall and spring.

It will save a ton of coal a month in the winter time.

You can run it two days for the cost of lighting the furnace once.

It burns ordinary City Gas, and costs three cents an hour to run — using natural gas less than a cent an hour.

It will give you 4 to 8 times more heat than any other Gas fire.

It is absolutely and positively odorless. Without dust, dirt or ashes.

Why it does it--

Because of the high flame temperature and intensified combustion made possible by our wonderful new safety burner.

Because this heat coming in contact with lace-like Heating elements becomes further intensified, making them glow and become intensely hot.

Because this incandescent mass throws out pure Radiant Heat waves all over the lower part of the room, warming you instantly.

Because of these things there are no unburnt gases, therefore, no odor, and a perfect Hygienic fire and wonderful for a sick room.

Because of these things it is the most wonderful heating appliance in the world.

No Dirt, No Ashes, No Noise, No Bother, Perfect Safety, Ever Ready

Be sure to ask for the Genuine HUMPHREY RADIANTFIRE with the SUPER-COMBUSTION BURNER.

If it isn't a Humphrey, it isn't a Radiantfire.

THE ARMY FLYERS GIRDLE THE GLOBE

Complete Rest, With No Thought of the Weather Conditions, Face Aerial Heroes As They Awake This Morning

AIRMEN LAND IN SEATTLE

Five Months And Twenty-Two Days After the Start on Their Sensational Flight — Among First to Greet Them Is Major Martin, First Commander

Seattle, Wash., Sept 29.—Complete rest, with no thought of weather conditions, faced the American around-the-world fliers this morning after having officially completed the first aerial girdling of the globe.

The airmen reached Seattle Sunday afternoon, five months and 22 days after the start of their sensational flight.

Their landing was in the nature of a [illegible] by Major [illegible], commander of the flight, whose plane crashed in Alaska, was among the first to greet them here.

When the round-the-world flyers arrived at Seattle yesterday after a flight of approximately 28,000 miles completed in 175 days and five hours, another American achievement was added to the already long list of triumphs in aviation.

Other famous records established by American aviators include:

World speed record, Long Island, November 4, 1923, by Lieut. A. J. Williams, at 266.59 miles an hour.

Non-stop transcontinental flight, Long Island to San Diego, May 2-3, 1923, by Lieuts. Kelly and MacReady, in 26 hours, 50 minutes, 3 seconds.

World endurance record, both for time and distance (re-fueled in mid-air), San Diego, August 27-28, 1923, by Lieuts. Lowell Smith and J. Richter, in 37 hours, 15 minutes, 12.8 seconds, 3,293.26 miles.

Dawn-to-dusk transcontinental flight, New York to San Francisco, June 23, 1924, by Lieut. R. L. Maughan, in 21 hours, 45 minutes.

Leaving Seattle April 6, the flyers traversed 28,000 miles and touched 21 countries, 25 states and one territory of the Union. They were in the air approximately 350 hours, making a total of 57 hops, averaging 483 miles each.

Riggle writhing and unconscious on the floor when he entered the office.

Ward said a colored man and woman were in the office when he returned for this, his second visit, but that Riggle was not in sight. He heard him moan and looking behind the counter saw him stretched out on the floor. The colored man and woman, who live in Ewing street, Washington, fled from the place, but Ward remained and gave the police all the facts he knew upon their arrival.

One theory advanced is that Riggle may have become ill or seized by a sudden fainting spell and struck his head in falling violently to the floor.

It was reported Saturday that the [illegible] had been [illegible] by a rear door and escaped that way but this theory proved to be without foundation for the rear door of the office was locked. Many persons were about the street in front of the office, but nobody seems to have seen anybody leave hastily, until the colored man and woman spread the alarm.

GENEVA IS "VIBRANT WITH APPREHENSION"

London, Sept. 29—Japan's attitude toward the League of Nations protocol has created an atmosphere at Geneva "vibrant with apprehension," the Morning Post's correspondent says, adding it is generally feared "Japan merely is seeking an opportunity gracefully to exit from the League"

Significant of Hate

In ancient times there was a belief that a man was assured of immortality only as long as his name was known on earth. The building of monuments and the naming of sons for fathers are traced to this superstition by some writers. "May his name perish" was the anathema of an enemy.

Very Odd

Isn't it funny? A ruse is a blind, a blind is a shade, a shade is a shadow, a shadow's a ghost, a ghost is a shade, a shade is a color, a color is paint and paint is rouge. Therefore, by Euclid, axiom one, rouge must be a ruse. And curiously enough it is true.—Yale Record.
